Faisnéis maidir le Fáinne Cnoc Shliabh gCuillinn About the Ring of Gullion

Aithníonn Limistéar Sáráilleachta Nádúrtha (AONB) Fáinne Cnoc Shliabh gCuillinn go foirmiúil gur tírdreach a bhfuil tábhacht náisiúnta ag baint leis é Sliabh gCuillinn, an talamh feirme timpeall air agus a fháinne cnoc. Meastar gurb é Fáinne Cnoc Shliabh gCuillinn an sampla is fearr de dhingeán fáinneach in Éirinn agus sa Bhreatain Mhór agus is é an chéad dingeán fáinneach ar domhan a ndearnadh mapáil gheolaíoch air.

Tá gnáthóga fraochmhá, portaigh agus coillearnaí atá saibhir ó thaobh an fhiad-húlra de in imeartas leis na goirt atá patrúnaithe go slachtmhar agus leis na feirmeacha déirimire. Tagann an cháil atá ar Shliabh gCuillinn mar shliabh rúnd-amhaire ón bhaint shaibhir atá aige le finscéalta agus le miotais na hÉireann.

The Ring of Gullion Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) formally recognises that Slieve Gullion, its surrounding farmland and ring of hills, is a landscape of national importance. The Ring of Gullion is regarded as the finest expression of a ring dyke in Ireland and Britain and was the first ring dyke in the world to be geologically mapped.

Rich wildlife habitats of heath, bog and woodland contrast with the neatly patterned fields and ladder farms. Slieve Gullion's reputation as Ireland's mountain of mystery arises from its rich associations with Irish legends and myths.

Féilire Fáinne Cnoc Shliabh gCuillinn The Ring of Gullion Calendar

Tá comórtas grianghraf Fáinne Cnoc Shliabh gCuillinn sa chúigiú bliain anois agus tá sé seabhunaithe mar ócáid bhliantúil cháiliúil in Ard Mhacha Theas. Mar chuid den tionscadal, roghnaítear pictiúir ceathair déag le bheith ar taispeáint san fhéilire. San am atá thart thug Comhairle Ceantair an Lúir, Mhúrn agus an Dúin na duaiseanna go flaitiúil dúinn.

The Ring of Gullion photo competition is now in its sixth year and has established itself as a popular annual event in South Armagh. As part of the project fourteen pictures are chosen to feature on the calendar. Prizes in the past have been generously donated by Newry Mourne and Down District Council.
