

Competitions Rules

Terms and conditions of the 2021 AONB Photographic Competition.

1. About the Competition

- This competition is administered by Newry Mourne and Down District Council (NMDDC) and Ards and North Down Borough Council (AANDBC) through the Ring of Gullion and Strangford and Lecale AONB team.
- The theme for the AONBs Photographic Competition is as detailed on www.ringofgullion.org.
- The theme is open to individual interpretation. You might choose to photo wildlife (which includes animals and plants), landscapes, old buildings or stone walls or even the weather. Pictures of domestic animals (eg pets and livestock) and cultivated plants are not eligible. Images of wildlife in captivity must be declared as such.
- Visit <https://www.ringofgullion.org/gallery-category/photography-competition/> to see photos entered and winners in the past few years.
- Each entry should be marked with name, contact telephone number (both daytime and evening), where the photo was taken and the age category under 14 or over 14. If not specified the organizers will assume it is the over 14 category.
- Entries should be sent via the photo upload page on www.ringofgullion.org

1.2. Categories

- Under 14
- Over 14

1.3 Dates

- The competition closes as specified on www.ringofgullion.org.
- The competition is open for entries.
- The deadline for the entries is 17th August 2021.
- Overall Winners will be announced in September 2021.

2. Conditions of Entry

2.1 Categories Under and Over 14, entry.

- Entries must be taken within one of the 3 AONBs, no exceptions. Boundary maps can be viewed on www.ringofgullion.org and clicking on about the AONB tab.
- Entrants can submit up to four photos as electronic copy (max 10mb) in colour or black and white. Hard copy images cannot be accepted. It is recommended to be at least 1200 pixels on the longest length. Important - Photographs must be landscape orientation!
- A high-resolution image with a minimum of 6MB, preferably over 10MB, will be requested if entries are shortlisted and entrants may be disqualified at the judge's discretion if high resolution images are not provided when requested (with exception for entries to the Under 14's categories).

3. Eligibility

- The Photography Competition is open to all – apart from anyone associated with the competition including the AONB team (and their partners and family), board/committee members and judges.
- All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other party.
- Photos which have been entered into past Ring of Gullion or AONB Photo Competitions will not be accepted.
- The entrants must be the sole owner of copyright in all photographs entered and must have obtained beforehand all necessary permission of any people/ private property featured in the entries or their parents/guardians if children under 16 are featured. Further, entrants must not have breached any laws when taking their photographs.

- Prior to submission, entrants must not have offered any of their entries for sale, been paid for any publication of any of their entries or won or been a runner up in any other photographic competition with any of their entries.
- Entrants under the age of 12 years need to have parent or guardian consent to enter.
- Entrants must not be professional photographers and, for the purposes of this competition, a professional photographer will be considered to be someone who makes more than half their annual income from the sale of their photographs.
- Images that are out of area, or are out of focus will be disqualified and will be removed before judging.
- Images must be landscape to be considered for the calendar.

4. Ethics

- Images may be digitally enhanced to remove spots or scratches, but not manipulated. Entrants can enhance the picture to make it brighter, clearer etc, but not manipulate the content.
- Ring of Gullion and Strangford and Lecale AONB Officers and the judges reserve the right to exclude any image they believe may have been excessively treated so as to alter its authenticity.
- An image will be rejected if in the opinion of the judges it appears that the image has been taken in such a way that wildlife or animal welfare requirements may have been breached; protected species or habitats have been compromised; or the images has been otherwise taken in an irresponsible manner.
- Images which are portrait orientation, out of focus or are pictures of domestic animals (eg pets) and cultivated plants are not eligible and will be disqualified prior to judging.

5. Judging

- Judges hold the right to move entries to another category/month.
- The judges reserve the right not to make any award if, in their opinion, none of the entries meet the required standard.
- The decision of the judges is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- For both under and over 14 category: all entries will be judged by a panel of judges. The panel of judges will select a shortlist (the "Finalists") which, in their opinion, best illustrate the theme of the competition. They will consider a range of factors including composition, technical ability, originality, and interpretation of the theme.
- The judges will select three pictures and the winners will receive a first prize, Second prize, and third prize.

6. Prizes

- Prizes will be awarded to winners of under and over 14 category winners.
- Second and third places will also win a prize in over the 14 category.
- The prizes are non-transferable.
- The Council's reserves the right to substitute the whole or part of any listed prize with an alternative of equal monetary value (but the entrant shall not have any right to demand this).
- The prizes must be claimed within one year of the competition winners being announced or will be forfeited.

7. Copyright and Usage

- Entrants will retain copyright in the photographs that they submit to NMDDC and AANDBC.
- By entering the competition all entrants grant to NMDDC and AANDBC the right to publish and exhibit their photographs on any media and on any NMDDC and AANDBC websites or social media sites.
- Entrants whose photographs are one of the Finalists pursuant to paragraph above grant to NMDDC and AANDBC (and other publishers authorized by NMDDC and AANDBC) the further rights to publish and exhibit their photographs in print, on their respective websites or in any other media including but is not restricted; exhibiting, competition calendar, for use in press and on websites.

- No fees will be payable for any of the above uses.
- Entrants whose photographs are one of the Finalists also agree to take part in post-competition publicity.
- No profit will be made and photographs will not be sold.
- Any media will be for the sole purpose of marketing the AONBs. We will make every effort to credit photographers, including in printed reproductions of their work.
- The entrant is responsible for any claim made by a third party against the submission.

8. Disclaimer

- The information given in these Terms and Conditions is correct, but the AONB teams reserves the right to change any of it without prior notice.
